..... A NEW WAY TO VIEW THE CROSS:

MATTHEW 5:17-20

Because of the way the Hebrew was translated, we can miss out on what Jesus was truly saying.

Greek

“I have come”

“Destroy the law”

“Fulfill the law”

Hebrew

“I am here”

“Misinterpret Scripture”

“Show what was intended”

When we have a better understanding of Jesus’s work in the earth, we see that He was telling us to live by kingdom principles right now—to love one another. Loving God isn’t complete without loving each other.

Scripture references: Matthew 5:1-12; Matthew 25:31-45

All 613 commandments can be summarized with this:

Love God. Love everybody!

It’s not about deeds. It’s just love. We love even those who won’t love us.

Scripture references: Matthew 5:44, 22:36-40; Deuteronomy 22
